GOOD SERVICE

Our Superior Equipment and Splendid Organization is Admitted

IN ADDITION to good service we offer you the advice of trained men at the head of each department whose ideas about printing, binding, and kindred trades have been gathered during years of service in the business.

Without this intimate knowledge of our customers' needs it would be impossible to keep up this immense establishment. If you have been overlooking this service hadn't you better stop and think about it.

It costs you no more to do business with us than with other houses in the country, quality and service taken into consideration.

No job too large for our plant, none too small to receive our careful thought and prompt attention.

INTRODUCTION

TO THE PUBLIC:

 WE come to you with a new Directory for 1911, and express the hope that it will prove even more valuable to our patrons than any previous issue.

Mr. Samson, compiler, who did the work so faithfully and well two years ago, was engaged this year and this is a positive assurance that the work is most carefully done.

The book shows a steady growth during the past two years. A conservative estimate of the present population of Bloomington and Normal based on directory estimates, is about 35,000.

We thank our advertisers who make a directory possible, the public for the cheerful information given even when several visits have been necessary, and all who have contributed in any way to the success of this book.

The Car Door of the Future

A Modern Car Equipped

For years the railroads have paid annually thousands of dollars for temporary grain doors, other thousands for leaks resulting from the use of temporary doors. That they have earnestly sought a door that could be quickly put in position, that would protect the contents of the car, and that would release without delay when necessary to open the car, has been proved, and that they would pay handsomely for such a door has also been proved by the two hundred patent doors put on the market in the past ten years. That ALL of these two hundred have been failures is proved by the fact that the Ill. Central, C. & A. and other roads have abandoned their use, and gone back to the use of boards to be nailed across the car door. That the roads are anxious to secure a successful car door is proved by the fact that a car equipped with patent steel doors has been under test on the Ill. Central for three years, that the Ill. Traction System is equipping a car for test purposes, that arrangements have been made to equip some cars on the C., P. & St. L. and that the private corporation—Turner-Hudnut Co.—of Pekin, Ill., are equipping their cars with the doors.

This door which has proven successful under every test for three years, is known as the Williams All-Service Car Door. It is a combination grain door and outside door, made of steel, is practically indestructible, is a permanent part of the car, can be fastened in four minutes, released in four seconds, has made over four thousand miles loaded with grain, and additional mileage loaded with coal, hay, flour and other commodities, and during all this time has never leaked any of the contents. It IS a SUCCESS because it is designed and built by successful railroad men, and meets all conditions. The doors in this one car have saved grain doors to the value of $120 and over, not to mention the saving caused by no leaks.

If you would like to know more about the doors or about the progress of the Company from an investing standpoint, write to

GOOD SERVICE

Our Superior Equipment and Splendid Organization is Admitted

IN ADDITION to good service we offer you the advice of trained men at the head of each department whose ideas about printing, binding, and kindred trades have been gathered during years of service in the business.

Without this intimate knowledge of our customers' needs it would be impossible to keep up this immense establishment. If you have been overlooking this service hadn't you better stop and think about it.

It costs you no more to do business with us than with other houses in the country, quality and service taken into consideration.

No job too large for our plant, none too small to receive our careful thought and prompt attention.

GOOD SERVICE

Our Superior Equipment and Splendid Organization is Admitted

IN ADDITION to good service we offer you the advice of trained men at the head of each department whose ideas about printing, binding, and kindred trades have been gathered during years of service in the business.

Without this intimate knowledge of our customers' needs it would be impossible to keep up this immense establishment. If you have been overlooking this service hadn't you better stop and think about it.

It costs you no more to do business with us than with other houses in the country, quality and service taken into consideration.

No job too large for our plant, none too small to receive our careful thought and prompt attention.
